Command + Control + Q

“Lock your screens and leave your home office. DAM projects is celebrating the opening of the gallery’s new location in Berlin-Charlottenburg.

While the title of the exhibition might suggest you end your screen activities, it is anything but an invitation to turn away from the digital.

Through various techniques the artists in this show guide our attention towards both technologies and technologies’ implications.

Arno Beck, Eelco Brand, Lorna Mills, Tabitha Swanson, Tamiko Thiel and /p & Addie Wagenknecht remind us of the past, reflect on the current and reveal future potentials. With digital art being so ultimately rooted in the present, it almost necessarily affects us.

Hit Command + Control + Q and come see for yourselves.”

Curated by Anna Meinecke, editor-in-chief of gallerytalk.net.
